

Challenge to city to walk this way

VERA BERTOLA

MACARTHUR Disability Services has issued an irresistible invitation to the community: join us on March 9 and be part of a fantastic event.

The service is rallying support for an exciting and history-making effort. Service general manager Anne Thorn explained that each year staff, family, friends and sponsors participated in the Campbelltown City Challenge Walk.

But this year there was another challenge in addition to the 6km course and the "one hill that gets you every time".

"This year council has included

WALKING FOR FUN, FITNESS

■ WHAT: Campbelltown City Challenge Walk

■ WHEN: Sunday, March 9, from 8am

■ WHERE: Mt Annan Botanic Garden

■ REGISTRATION: 4645 4605 or visit www.campbelltown.nsw.gov.au and follow the link under Latest News

a largest team category and, with your help, MDS Walking Together will be that team," Ms Thorn said.

She appealed to every resident in the region to join the group in a show of support for people with disabilities. "By joining our team in the 6km fun walk, you are showing community support for people with a disability," Ms Thorn said.

"We're walking together, working together, living together and having fun together."

Service events co-ordinator Steve Wisbey said Campbelltown Council had asked if potential team members could register at the service office.

"They can pay their registration at our office, we have entry forms here, and they can collect their free T-shirt as well," he said.

Details: Phone 4621 8400 or drop into Level 8, 138 Queen St, Campbelltown.

Part of the Macarthur Disability Services gang who've already signed up for the Campbelltown City Challenge Walk.