Party guests go tropical

MORE than 400 revellers danced the night away at the tropical-themed Macarthur Disability Services (MDS) Annual Ball at Campbelltown Catholic Club on Friday, November 4.

The night was an opportunity for people with a disability, their families and carers a chance to let their hair down, dance and socialise with friends. Guests were entertained by island dancers, drummers, a band and DJ Greg McPhee.

Campbelltown MP Bryan Doyle, Wollondilly MP Jai Rowell and Wollondilly deputy mayor Ben Banasik were among the revellers. "MDS represents the very best of the spirit of Campbelltown, the opal of the south west," Mr Doyle said.

MDS chief executive Anne Thorn said the ball was a great event and thanked sponsors — including the Commonwealth Bank and TRN Group — as well as supporters and guests for their generosity.
